

This handbook was made possible through the generous assistance of:

The City of Toronto, AIDS Prevention Program

Health and Welfare Canada, AIDS Community Action Program

Ontario Ministry of Health

Many people contributed to the development of this handbook, as writers, editors, technical reviewers and community advisors.

The editorial committee was comprised of Chris Bearchell, Theresa Dobko, Stewart Brown, Glen Pelshea, Gerry Hunt and Wayne Hellard. Edition of the final manuscript was done by Irit Shimrat. David Vereschagin was responsible for the design and layout of the handbook.

We would like to acknowledge the generous contributions of the following:

Certain chapters were written in whole or in part by Tim McCaskell, Mary Louise Adams, Alex Berry, Theresa Dobko, Darien Taylor, Dr. Chester Myers and Sean Water-son. Earlier drafts of the handbook were developed by André Chamberlain, Bernard Courte, Beverley Deutsche, Ron Foley, Ian Lumsdeu, Eric Mitchell, Bill Naumovich and David Pickard. Steve Chapman edited early drafts of several of the more technical chapters.

The following people kindly consented to review portions of the manuscript for technical accuracy: Dr. Don MacAulay, Dr. Stan Read, Pat Williams, R.N., Glen Pelshea, Sean Hossein, Stewart Brown, Yvette Perreault and Charles Roy.

Consultations were conducted with individuals with special knowledge of the various communities affected by HIV and AIDS. We would like to thank the following for their help in shaping the material to ensure its relevance and sensitivity: Anthony Mohamed, Alliance for South Asian AIDS Prevention; Dionne Falconer, BlackCAP; Santo Caira, Hemophilia Ontario, Toronto and Central Ontario Region; Darien Taylor, Voices of Positive Women; Eric Mitchell, Getting Hooked Up Project; Ayoka Junaid and Dianne Lodge, Deaf Outreach Project of the AIDS Committee of Toronto.

We would also like to thank all of those individuals and organizations whose names may have been missed but who contributed their support and encouragement to this project.

Any errors that may remain are the responsibility of Community AIDS Treatment Information Exchange (CATIE) and The Toronto People With AIDS Foundation.
